Who We Are:

• We are the New Israel Fund UK. We are registered as a charity with the Charity Commission and our registered charity number is 1060081. Our registered office is at Star House, 104 Grafton Rd, Kentish Town, London, NW5 4BA.

Challenge Details
Challenge Organiser:	This Challenge is being organised and will be run by Skyline Events.
Contact Details:	You can contact them by info@londonbrightoncycle.co.uk
Challenge:	This Challenge involves a 55 mile cycle from London to Brighton.
Challenge Date:	The Challenge will take place on 15th September 2024.
Challenge T&Cs:	You must read and accept the Terms and Conditions issued by the Challenge Organiser and comply with these. You can find the terms here. If there is any conflict between these terms and the Challenge Organiser's terms, these terms will take precedence in respect of your fundraising and the Challenge Organiser's terms will take precedence in respect of your participation in the Challenge.
Your Participation
Registration Fee:	We are covering your registration fee (£55) for this event, please be aware if you decide not to take part after the registration process has closed and we have not received any funds raised, we will ask for the £55 as a donation.
Pledge Minimum:	We ask that you pledge to raise a minimum of £250 (excluding gift aid) in sponsorship money. However, please try and raise as much sponsorship money as possible to help with our vital work creating a fairer Israel for all. You can collect the sponsorship money in any manner you wish, including by using a fundraising platform.
Age:	The minimum age for this Challenge is 16 years old. You confirm you will be at least the minimum age on the day of the Challenge and, if you are under 18, that you have informed a parent or guardian that you are fundraising for this Challenge.

Changes, Postponement, or Cancellation:

- Cancellation or changes made by the Challenge Organiser: We have no control over the Challenge. The Challenge Organiser may need to make changes to, postpone, or cancel the Challenge due to an event outside their control. Please see the Challenge Organiser's Terms and Conditions (linked above) for more information. The Challenge Organiser will contact you if this happens.
- Sponsorship money: If the Challenge is cancelled, or you decide not to participate, you are responsible for contacting your sponsors to inform them that you are no longer taking part and for confirming with them whether they are happy for the money they have donated to still be given to the New Israel Fund. If you are using sponsorship forms for your fundraising, all sponsorship forms and monies collected should be forwarded to us or returned to your sponsors in accordance with their wishes.

Our Liability:

- The New Israel Fund are not the organiser of the Challenge and do not have any responsibility or liability in respect of running the Challenge. The New Israel Fund will not be responsible for injury or illness resulting from your participation or for any damage or losses outside of our control. However, we do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so, which includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors. In addition, if we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking this contract or our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time the contract was made, both we and you knew it might happen.

Use of Personal Data:

- All use of your personal data will be in accordance with our Privacy Policy, including the sharing of your data with the Challenge Organiser if applicable.
- You have provided the New Israel Fund information about you and the New Israel Fund will use and share this data to perform this contract. You understand that it will be necessary for the New Israel Fund to share data with the Challenge Organiser in order for you to participate in this Challenge.
- We do not sell or swap your details with any third parties, except the Challenge Organiser and service companies authorised to act on our behalf in order to carry out our work.
- We will keep your details on our database so we can provide you with the best possible support every time you contact us.

Use of Photos and Videos of the Challenge:

- You confirm that you are happy for your name and any video footage or photographs taken of you during the Challenge to be used by us for commercial and fundraising purposes, such as preparing marketing material for future challenges and uploading videos and photographs from the Challenge to social media to promote the Challenge and celebrate the success of our fundraisers. Please let us know if you do not want us to use video footage or photographs of you in this way by contacting us using the details above and including your race (or other similar registration) number so that we can identify you.
- For further information about how we collect and use personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

Complaints:

- Any complaints should be communicated to Sarah-Jayne Grahame or if that is not possible, then in writing to the New Israel Fund office as soon as possible after the Challenge.

Governing Law:

- These terms are governed by English law or, if you live in the EU, the law of the country where you live.

- You can bring legal proceedings in the English courts. If you live elsewhere in the UK or you live in the EU, you can also bring legal proceedings where you live.

Other Legal Terms:

- We may transfer our rights and obligations under these terms to another organisation.
- This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms (except in the situation where we agree to you transferring your place in the Challenge to somebody else).
- Each of the paragraphs of these terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.
- If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.
